Your agreement with the provider of that application will control how the application can use, store, and transfer that content and information, so be sure to thoroughly read any such application's terms of service and only use applications from trusted providers.

For clarity, the foregoing license grants to NETGEAR do not affect your ownership of or right to grant additional licenses to the material in your Content, unless otherwise agreed in writing.

9. Subscription fees

Some Arlo Services require an ongoing subscription. You agree to pay your subscription fee in advance. Your subscription period is stated in your Arlo subscription plan. Your subscription fee will cover the Arlo Services covered in your Arlo subscription plan. You may have a choice of subscription payment options and may change your selected payment option by notifying NETGEAR in accordance with the subscription plan. If for any reason you need to reactivate a terminated subscription you may be charged a reactivation fee. If you register for the Arlo Services under a promotional subscription fee, some additional restrictions may apply. Whatever your subscription payment option, your subscription fee does not include any services, features or functionality other than the Arlo Services as defined in the plan you choose. NETGEAR may offer multiple subscription plans with varying levels and services.

10. Payment authorization

To sign up for a subscription option with recurring payments, complete the required registration details online, select your method of payment, check the box to “Automatically Renew my Service Plan,” and click “Continue.” You will receive an e-mail confirmation of your auto renewal once you complete the initial payment process. If you choose a subscription option with recurring payments (i.e. the monthly and annual subscriptions) you agree that NETGEAR may automatically charge the subscription fee to the credit or charge card provided and associated with your account at the beginning of each period at the frequency you have selected unless and until you cancel the subscription option by unchecking the auto-renewal option in your Arlo account settings at arlo.netgear.com or canceling your Arlo Services. You must cancel prior to the subscription fee being charged to the credit or charge card. If you signed up at a promotional rate any renewals past the promotional period will be charged at the then effective subscription fee. Access to your Arlo Services will not be established until NETGEAR or its agent has verified that the credit card information is valid, accurate and that your credit card account is in good standing. You will receive an e-mail reminders of your auto renewal 30 and 7 days prior to any applicable renewal. You will also receive a reminder email a day before your date of renewal reminding you that your subscription option will be renewed for an additional period.

To the extent possible under the governing law, NETGEAR may change the Arlo Services fees or charge additional fees for features and functionalities that are not a part of the Arlo Services. Such fee changes and additional charges will generally not take place until the renewal date for your subscription, and if you are dissatisfied with the fee changes or additional charges, you may terminate your use of the Arlo Services because of the implementation of such fee changes or additional charges and be entitled to a pro-rated refund of any of your paid for, but unused, fees for using the Arlo Services. NETGEAR will notify you by an email to the email address on record for your account in advance of any fee changes or new fees.

NETGEAR may suspend or terminate your Arlo Services without notice upon rejection of any credit card charges or if your card issuer (or its agent or affiliate) seeks the return of payments previously made to NETGEAR for Arlo Services. You agree NETGEAR may charge interest on all amounts due that remain unpaid for 30 days or more. The monthly interest will equal 1.5% of the past due amount or the highest rate allowed by law, whichever is less, until the past due amount and interest is paid. Such rights are in addition to and not in lieu of any other legal rights or remedies available to NETGEAR. NETGEAR may refer your account to a third party for collection in the event of ongoing default.

11. Internet service provider and cell phone charges

The Arlo Services require the use of a broadband Internet connection. You are responsible for any service charges for your internet connection or data plan incurred as a result of using or accessing the Arlo Services and acknowledge and agree that you will be solely responsible for all disputes with any internet service or cell phone provider relating to same. In particular, streaming and viewing recorded videos and the use of the apps may incur extra and substantial charges on devices that use a data plan. NETGEAR is not responsible for and does not make any assurances about the availability, functionality, or cost of any broadband internet connection or other data plan.

12. Using the Arlo Services

You may access and use the Arlo Services only with an Arlo System that is authorized to communicate with the Arlo Websites. You agree not to tamper with or otherwise modify your

Arlo System. The Arlo Services are provided for your personal, non-commercial use and may not be resold, in whole or in part. Except as expressly provided in these Terms, you may not transfer the Arlo Services or the right to receive them. By using the Arlo Services you agree to receive all software updates and upgrades that NETGEAR sends to your Arlo System. If you disable the automatic upgrade feature of the Arlo System then certain functionality of the Arlo System may be adversely impacted. Even if you disable the automatic upgrade feature of your Arlo System, NETGEAR may still implement critical Arlo System updates; updates for Arlo applications running on your iPhone, iPad, Android phone, or tablet; and Arlo back end service updates. If your Arlo System accesses the Arlo Websites (regardless of your payment or subscription status) you acknowledge and agree that you are a user of the Arlo Services and are bound by the provisions of these Terms.

13. Termination of service

You may request termination of your account and your right to use the Arlo Services at any time without limitation. The Arlo Services will be terminated within approximately 5 business days after your request. Any unused Arlo Services fees, including subscription fees, may not be refundable under this method of termination. Upon termination of your account, certain information may not immediately be deleted from NETGEAR's or its agents' systems, including without limitation log entries, diagnostics, analytics coming from devices tied to the user; transaction details of the account; or information subject to search warrant, subpoenas, or other legal process.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these Terms, NETGEAR retains the absolute right to immediately terminate your account if the subscription charges are refused for any reason, if you breach any provision of these Terms, if you misuse the Arlo Services, and/or if you alter your Arlo System or use the Arlo Services or software in such a manner as to infringe upon the intellectual property rights of NETGEAR and/or its subsidiaries and affiliates or any third party.

In addition, NETGEAR may terminate your account and these Terms for any other reason if NETGEAR gives you at least 30 days advance notice of such termination. Upon any such termination of your account, you will remain obligated to pay all outstanding fees and charges relating to your use of the Arlo Services before termination, and NETGEAR will give you a pro-rated refund of any of your paid for, but unused, Arlo Services fees that will remain unused because of NETGEAR's termination under this method of termination. Termination of the Arlo Services may result in the forfeiture and destruction of all information associated with your membership, including Content.

All provisions of these Terms which, by their nature, should survive termination, will survive termination, including, without limitation, ownership provisions, warranty disclaimers, and limitations of liability.

14. Notice

NETGEAR may provide you with notices, including those regarding changes to these Terms, by email, regular mail, text message, postings or updates to the Arlo Websites or other reasonable means now known or hereinafter developed.

15. Title to software and intellectual property

You may need to use certain software programs in your Arlo System to use or have full access to certain features of the Arlo Services. You are required to accept and use the software included in your Arlo System at the time of purchase and other software programs that may be delivered to your Arlo System by NETGEAR from time to time. NETGEAR and/or its subsidiaries, affiliates, and licensors retain title to and ownership of all the software for the Arlo System and certain intellectual property rights in the Arlo System. NETGEAR and/or its affiliates also retain ownership of all NETGEAR and Arlo copyrights and trademarks. In the case of third party software delivered by NETGEAR and/or its subsidiaries and affiliates to the Arlo System, the applicable third party retains title to and ownership of its software, copyrights and trademarks.

THE ALLOCATION OF SUCH RISK REMAINS WITH YOU, NOT NETGEAR.

OTHER THAN THE ABOVE PRODUCT WARRANTY FOR THE ARLO CAMERAS AND BASE STATION DEVICES, NETGEAR AND ITS SUPPLIERS DISCLAIM ALL WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND, WHETHER EXPRESS, IMPLIED, OR STATUTORY, REGARDING THE ARLO SERVICES, INCLUDING ANY IMPLIED WARRANTY OF TITLE, MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, OR NONINFRINGEMENT OF THIRD PARTY RIGHTS. FOR A FULL UNDERSTANDING OF YOUR RIGHTS YOU SHOULD CONSULT THE LAWS OF YOUR STATE, PROVINCE, OR COUNTRY. FOR OUR AUSTRALIAN CUSTOMERS: PLEASE NOTE THAT THIS WARRANTY IS IN ADDITION TO ANY STATUTORY RIGHTS IN AUSTRALIA IN RELATION TO YOUR GOODS WHICH, PURSUANT TO THE AUSTRALIAN CONSUMER LAW, CANNOT BE EXCLUDED.

23. No third-party beneficiaries

You agree that, except as otherwise expressly provided in these Terms, there will be no third-party beneficiaries to these Terms.

24. Limitations of NETGEAR's liability

Under no circumstances will NETGEAR be liable in any way for any Content, including, but not limited to, the loss of Content, any errors or omissions in any Content, or any loss or damage of any kind incurred in connection with use of or exposure to any Content posted, emailed, accessed, transmitted, or otherwise made available via the Arlo Services.

NETGEAR's liability for damages, especially for breach of duty or obligation, delay in performance, non-performance, or malperformance shall be precluded, except when these are due to negligent breaches of any significant contractual duty or obligation on the part of NETGEAR. Any liability for negligence is limited to direct losses usually and typically foreseeable in such case. Should the claim for damages be based on wilful or grossly negligent breach of contractual duty or obligation on the part of NETGEAR, the preclusion and limitation of liability mentioned in the preceding sentences Will not apply. The preceding preclusion and limitation of liability Will also not apply to claims for damages arising out of loss of life, bodily injury or health impacts for which NETGEAR may be liable, or for non-contractual liability.

Some states and countries do not allow the exclusion or limitation of incidental or consequential damages, so the above limitation or exclusion may not apply to you. Additionally, this provision is not intended to limit NETGEAR's liability in the event of NETGEAR's willful or intentional misconduct. Moreover, if NETGEAR mistakenly or wrongfully overcharges your account, this section does not limit NETGEAR's ability to refund such mistakenly or wrongfully overcharged amounts.
